RainBowl Flower Water Butt

Our greenest water butt puts nature back into the urban environment. Base upon the vase style of the RainBowl but with incorporated planter.

The RainBowl Flower is the gardener's new best friend. The planting space is approximately 18cm deep with a small drain hole in the centre. Depending on the planting scheme, gardeners may wish to cover the drain hole with large stones, mesh or other suitable material (not included).

Available in three stunning colour finishes. The Blue Grey Granite finish has a beautiful fleck in the colour.

The butt features a 3/4" brass connection point for a screw in tap and a side outlet for draining or connecting to another tank. Supplied with chrome tap.
